Illustrated Catalogues (3 Plates), One Shilling.

Printed by H. Davy, Manfield House, Strand, W.C.2, England.

CONDITION OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All Lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the Seller and (b) to the right of the Seller either to bid personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any default or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of Colonel Sir Benjamin Bromhead, Bt., C.B.

A COLLECTION OF
GRAECO-BUDDHIST SCULPTURES.

2nd-5th Century, A.D.

- 120 A narrow Gandhara Frieze, in talcose-schist, with a seated figure of Buddha under a canopy, flanked by three other figures of kneeling donors, $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $3\frac{1}{4}$ in.; and a Capital of a Column, carved in relief, with seated Figures of Buddha on two sides, 11 in.

357- 2

- 121 A fine Gandhara Frieze in talcose-schist, depicting Buddha in the Dharmachakra mudra, seated beneath a canopy flanked on both sides by figures of Apostles in well-carved long flowing robes, $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 7 in.

2157-Laurance

- 122 An interesting Jain Carving of a full-length Figure, perhaps intended for Mahavira, in stone, with green patination, under an arch flanked by pillars and grotesque animals, 15 in. by 6 in., 12/13th century (?) Gwalior

357-20

- 123 A fine Gandhara Frieze in talcose-schist, in the centre a seated figure of Buddha, flanked on either side by four figures of Apostles, formalised trees at the extreme edge, 25 in. wide, $5\frac{3}{8}$ in. high

31-1-do

- 124 The Conversion of Kas'yapa. A Gandhara talcose-schist Frieze, depicting Buddha in the centre blessing the prostrate form of Kas'yapa, on his right is Sakra, holding a thunderbolt, and on his left Padmapani and Apostles, $14\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $11\frac{1}{2}$ in. high (this frieze resembles a somewhat similar one in the Calcutta Museum depicting the Ordination of Nanda, and another at Peshawar of the Conversion of the Brigand Angulimala, cf. Foucher, figs. 238 and 304)

2157-

- 125 A Gandhara Frieze of bowed form, in talcose schist, carved in high relief with a figure of Buddha seated in Dharmachakra mudra, flanked by four figures of Apostles in characteristic attitudes, wearing long flowing robes, $17\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. high, in two parts, fine carving 59mo. 2

- 126 A FULL-LENGTH FIGURE OF A BODHISATTVA, with ornate head-dress, circular mandorla and flowing robes, leaving the upper part of the body bare, except for jewelled necklets and amulets, both hands now missing, which makes attribution difficult, though the figure is more probably that of Siddhartha than Maitreya, his successor; he is depicted with wavy moustache and wearing sandals, and supported on a lotus base, 36 in. high 121 Asha

 Figures of Bodhisattvas of similar type are in the Lahore Museum, also in Calcutta, and in the Louvre.

[PLATE II.]

- 127 A FINE GANDHARA TALCOSE-SCHIST FIGURE OF BUDDHA, seated in the Dharmachakra attitude, the features superbly carved with half-closed eyes, long curved ears, wavy hair with ushnisha and urna on the forehead, part of the mandorla broken away at the back, the right shoulder bare, the robes well carved and extending to the plinth below, which depicts in low relief a smaller figure of Buddha flanked by two disciples, 27 in. high 114

 A very similar figure in the Lahore Museum is illustrated by Foucher, fig. 482.
